Capture the Aloha Spirit

Hawaii has long beckoned travelers with visions of sun, sand and surf. And whether you're visiting for the first time or the fifth, you're sure to be dazzled by her many charms. On these six gorgeous islands, you'll find flowing volcanoes (including the world's most active), some of the best surfing on earth, rainbow-hued gardens, powdery white-sand beaches, soaring seaside cliffs and mountains, lush tropical rain forests and best of all, that infectious aloha spirit and friendly Hawaiian hospitality.

Hawaii is the former seat of a royal kingdom ... so it's little wonder you're practically courted as aristocracy throughout your stay. Every expectation you have is sure to be exceeded, here on some of the world's most awe-inspiring islands.

Your Virtuoso travel advisor can match your interests and vacation dreams to the best island for you, whether your tastes run to the active (think climbing to Kilauea Volcano in Hawaii Volcanoes National Park) to the fairways (some of the world's most breathtaking golf courses call these islands home) to the indulgent (lomi lomi massage, perhaps?). There's a resort, spa, villa, and golf course for every personality and every traveler, whether you come with your closest loved one or the whole extended family.

JW Marriott Ihilani Resort & Spa at Ko'Olina

Bring the whole family to JW Marriott Ihilani Resort & Spa at Ko'Olina, overlooking one of Hawaii's finest white-sand beaches. Whether your tastes run toward a Maui ginger sugar scrub at the world-class spa or to a couple of rounds on the Ted Robinson-designed Ko Olina golf course, you'll find it here. Active travelers love the reef shark feeding and Hawaiian ray experience, and everyone can look forward to gourmet dining at any of five restaurants.

The Kahala Hotel & Resort

Recently named the top resort on Oahu by Condé Nast Traveler readers, The Kahala Hotel & Resort has long been recognized for its world-class service, relaxed elegance and secluded beach location. Spend an afternoon swimming with the resort's resident dolphins or indulging in a healing treatment at the award-winning spa. Later, make it a date at Hoku's, where you'll feast on Tasmanian salmon and baked oysters.

The Fairmont Kea Lani, Maui

At The Fairmont Kea Lani, Maui, every room is a suite, each offering a spacious bedroom and living area and an expansive lanai. Need even more room? There are a smattering of villas as well, boasting kitchens and private plunge pools. Venture out from your luxurious environs to take advantage of the nearby championship golf, 11 tennis courts, snorkeling, kayaking, spa services and more. Your location on Polo Beach is one of the most sought after in the world.

The Ritz-Carlton, Kapalua

Following a multimillion-dollar renovation, The Ritz-Carlton, Kapalua emerges with completely remodeled guestrooms, a spacious spa with outdoor shower gardens, refreshed restaurants, 36 holes of championship golf on two courses, direct access to D.T. Fleming Beach, a new children's program and a gorgeous tri-level swimming pool. Sparing no expense, the resort is a jewel in the heart of a century-old pineapple plantation, offering that quintessential Hawaiian hospitality.

Kapalua Villas

For a stress-free vacation, check in to Kapalua Villas, where you'll enjoy charging privileges at Kapalua Resort shops and restaurants, preferred rates and access to championship golf, complimentary resort-wide shuttle service, a full-service concierge and more. Plus, you'll have room to relax in a Fairway View Villa, Ocean View Villa or Gold Villa – choose from views of Molokai or The Bay Golf Course – all with complete kitchens, private lanais, laundry facilities and more.

Savor the Moment

Families, adventurers and romantics alike flock to the Caribbean and Mexico for the timeless appeal and gracious hospitality of these sun-splashed wonderlands. Their marvels are many ... from miles of toe-pleasing white sand to azure waters teeming with tropical marine life to lush rain forests waiting to be explored.

Choose from a plethora of unabashedly friendly islands and intriguing Mexican states, where brightly painted homes and churches and soaring mountains neighbor full-service resorts, world-class golf courses and heavenly spas. The regions' cuisines and cultures are many, inviting you to experience their individuality and captivating your senses.

The award-winning resorts within these pages are all dedicated to their natural and cultural environment, guaranteeing that you feel a sense of place throughout your stay. In the Dominican Republic, discover Old Santo Domingo, the "new world's" first capital city as chosen by Columbus. Learn underwater digital photography as you snorkel the reefs of Grand Cayman with a resident naturalist or go mangrove kayaking for a truly magical experience. Discover the myths and mysteries in the archaeological wonders that dot the Mexican countryside, from impressive Chichen Itza to the marvelous Mayan city of Tulum. Go big game fishing off Baja, shop the boutiques of Cancun or explore the marine life of Cozumel.

Of course, simply by calling your Virtuoso travel advisor, you're ensured an exclusive experience, complete with a specially selected amenity just for you. Venture to a place where time slows down, where moments linger and memories last a lifetime.

Casa de Campo

Families have long recognized Casa de Campo as one of the most parent- and kid-friendly resorts in the Caribbean. Bring the whole gang to enjoy activities for all ages, from tennis to trail riding; several of the world's most celebrated golf courses (including the famed Teeth of the Dog course, designed by Pete Dye); mouthwatering cuisine; and spacious accommodations (families love the home-like comforts of the private villas).

The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman

A haven for the most discerning sun-seeking travelers, The Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman fronts Seven Mile Beach and offers an oasis of grandeur and barefoot elegance unmatched on the island. This AAA Five Diamond property is rich with delights, including five gourmet restaurants; Silver Rain, a La Prairie Spa focusing on Swiss healing waters; a Nick Bollettieri tennis center; and the Greg Norman-designed Blue Tip course, caressed by Caribbean trade winds.

Luxury Villas

Sometimes, no matter how spacious, a hotel room just won't do. When you relish room to spread out, yet all the amenities of a five-star resort, a luxury villa is the answer. From a private Hawaiian home to a four-bedroom villa in Punta Mita to a sun-splashed residence on the coast of Antigua, Classic Vacations has the perfect getaway. You'll enjoy the services of a full-time cook and housekeeper and make yourselves at home in spacious dining, kitchen, living and sleeping areas. Most villas also boast their own swimming pool and Jacuzzi. This is a truly indulgent, relaxed way to vacation.
