Engage your senses with Cruise West's small-ship experience

Cruise West guests gather excitedly – not over the blackjack table in a glittering casino – but on the deck of the ship, watching and whispering in awe as humpback whales breach nearby. Instead of ballroom dance steps, they get to know the exotic birds and marine life of the South Pacific. They listen eagerly as onboard experts share their knowledge of the remote villages they visit – places big ships can't access.

Each day of a Cruise West voyage brings new, unexpected discoveries, whether you're marveling at Alaska's Misty Fiords or getting up-close and personal in Nagasaki. Small, shallow draft ships allow for a closer look, making you an active participant, not just a visitor, in your exploration. Up-close, casual and personal – that's the Cruise West experience, 60 years strong.

Your Virtuoso travel advisor can customize your small-ship journey today – call now and you'll enjoy a $75 shipboard credit on your chosen voyage.
